

Bugwood Center for Invasive Species and Ecosystem Health

Utilizing partnerships and information technology to advance invasive species management, integrated pest management and forest health

www.bugwood.org

Bugwood Apps Regional applications bring the fight against invasive alien species close to home

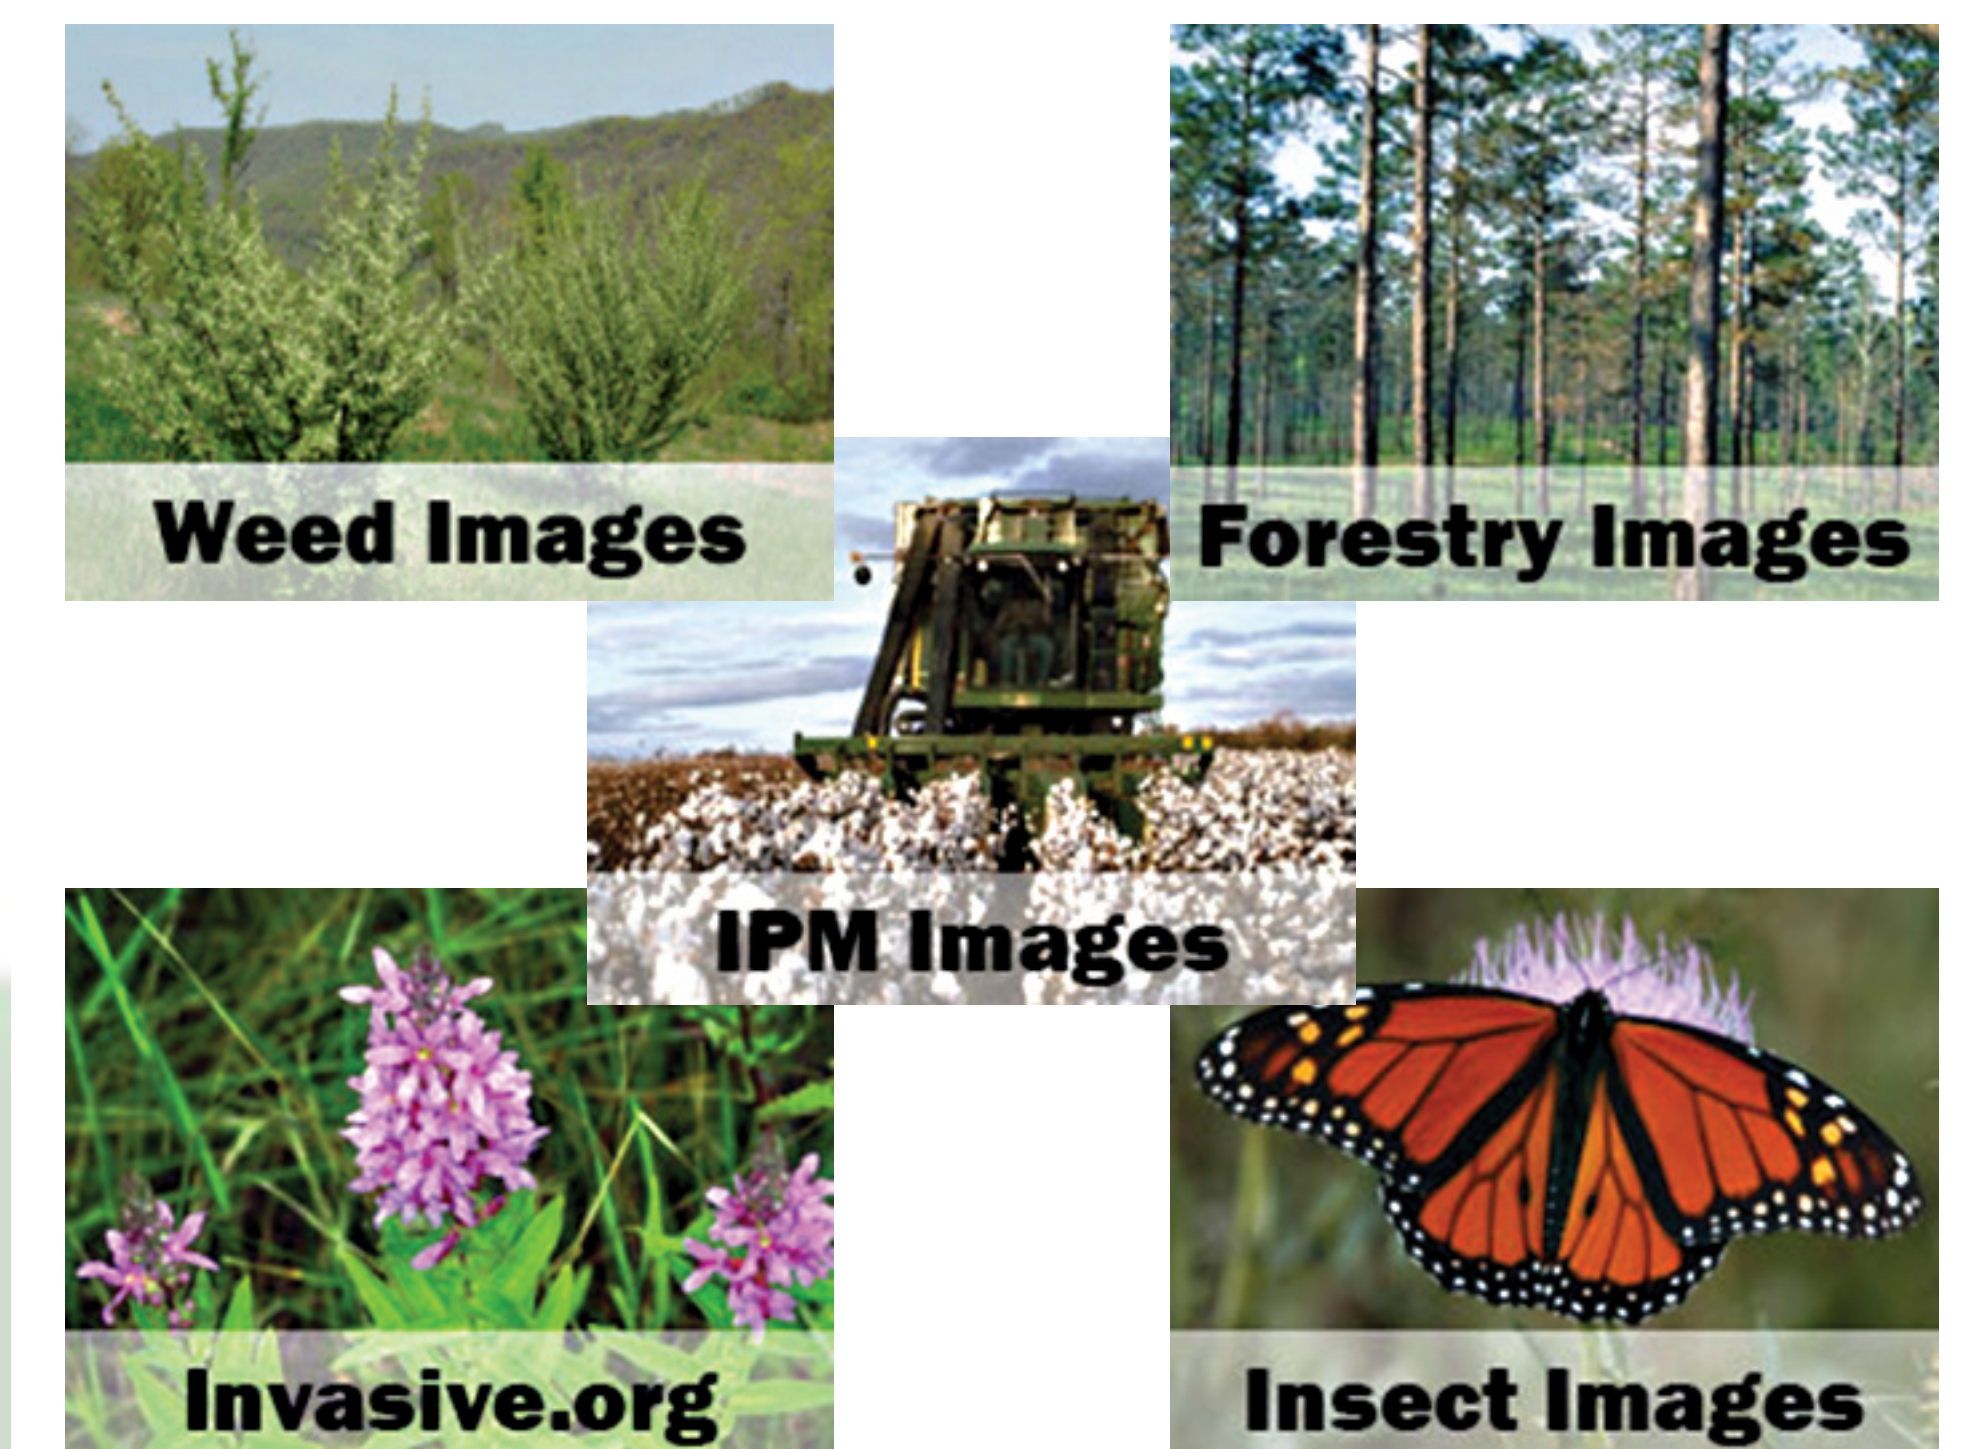

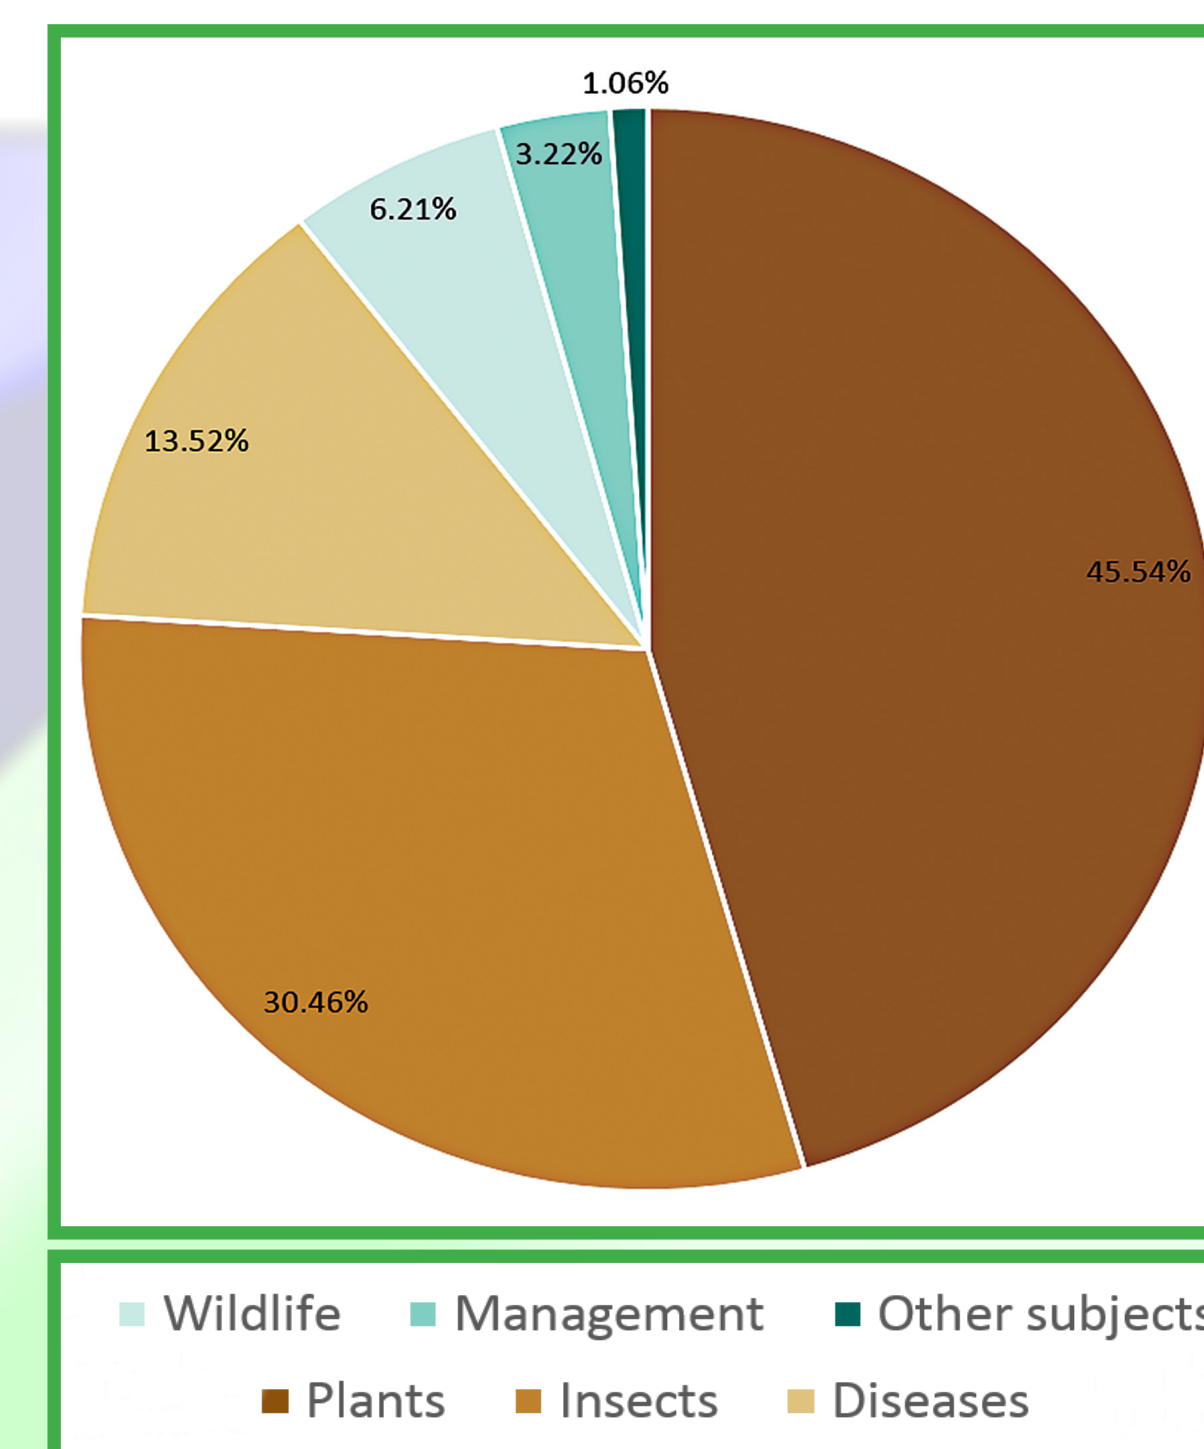

- ➔ Bugwood Apps offer field guides, reporting, and decision support
- ➔ 35 apps developed since 2011
- ➔ Apps available on Google Play and Apple iTunes (Android and iOS)
- ➔ Visit apps.bugwood.org to learn about current apps or contact Bugwood to develop your own

BUGWOOD APPS

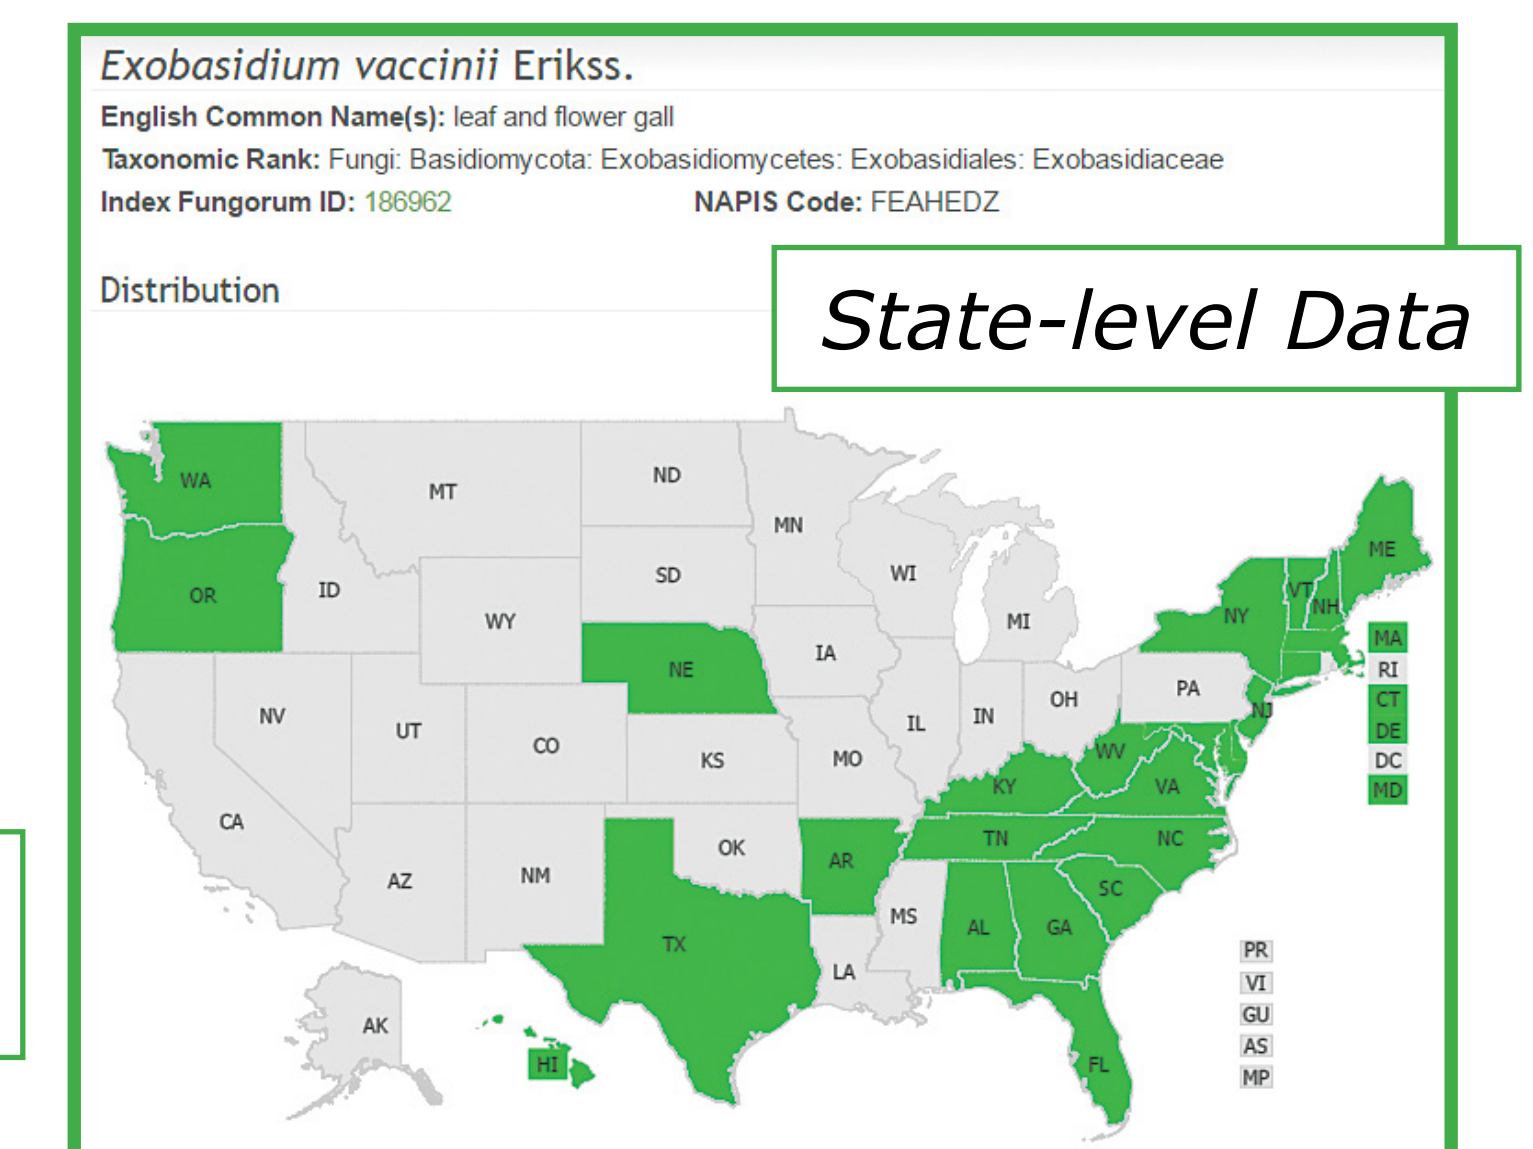

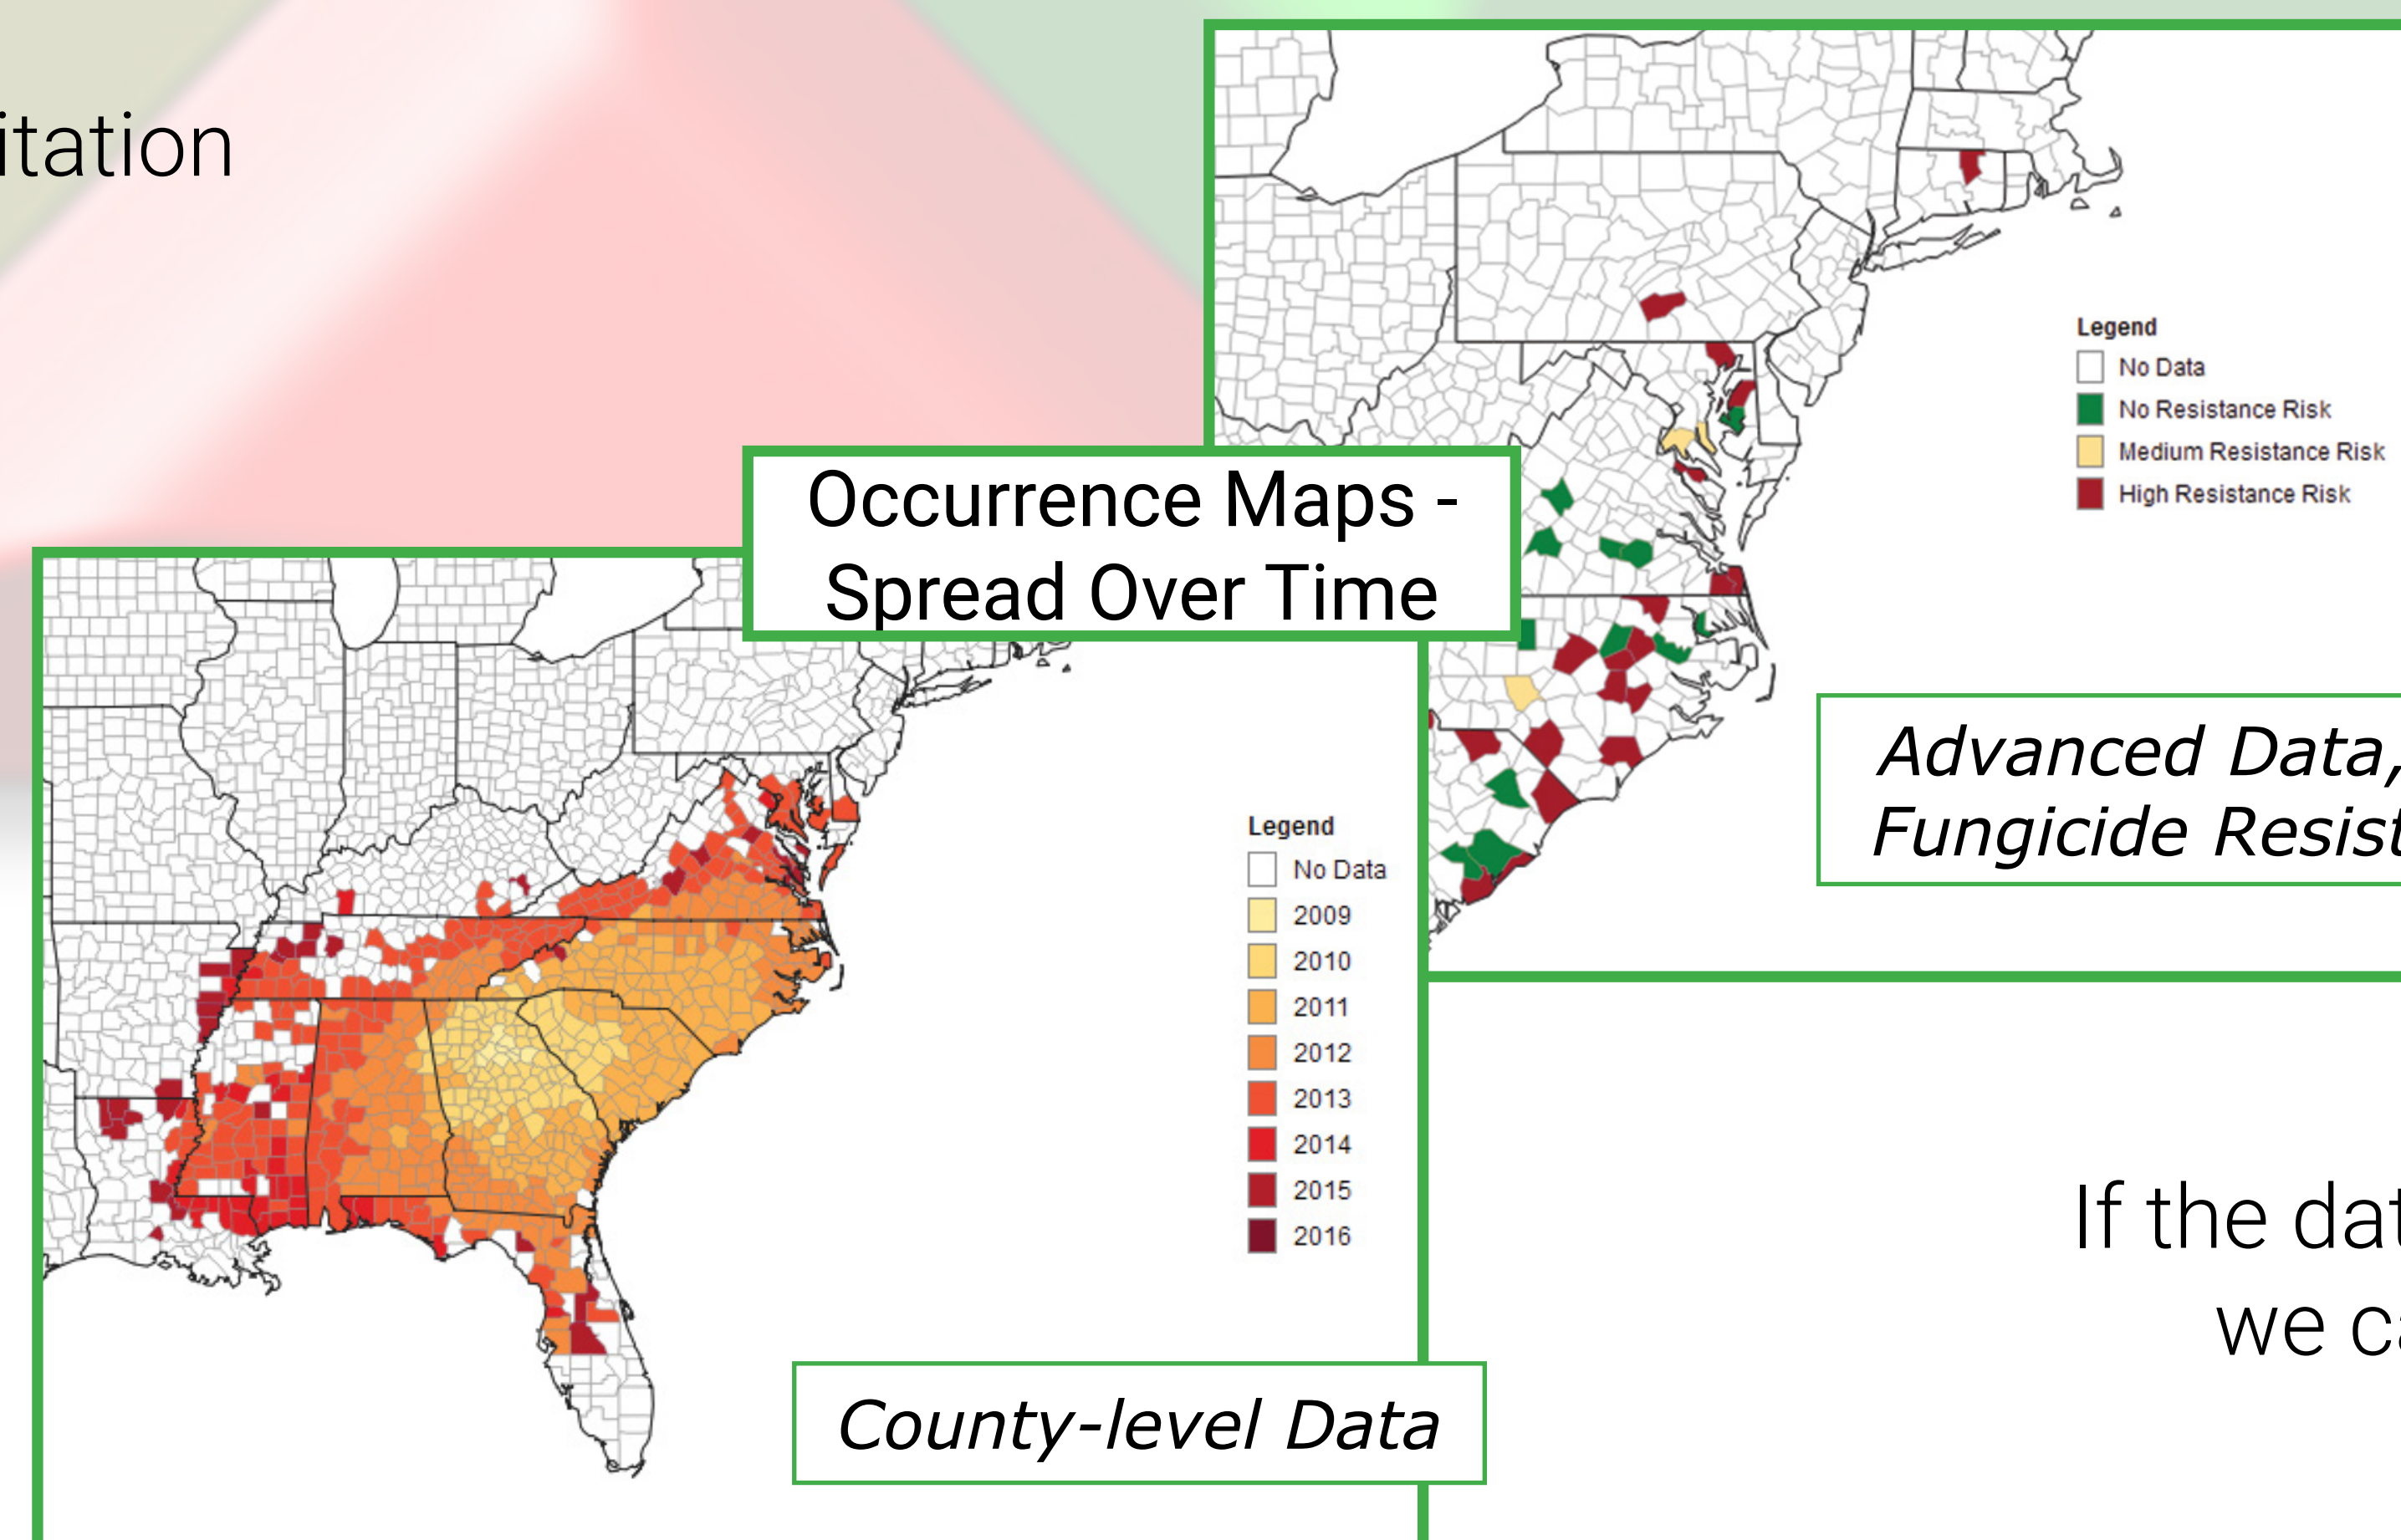

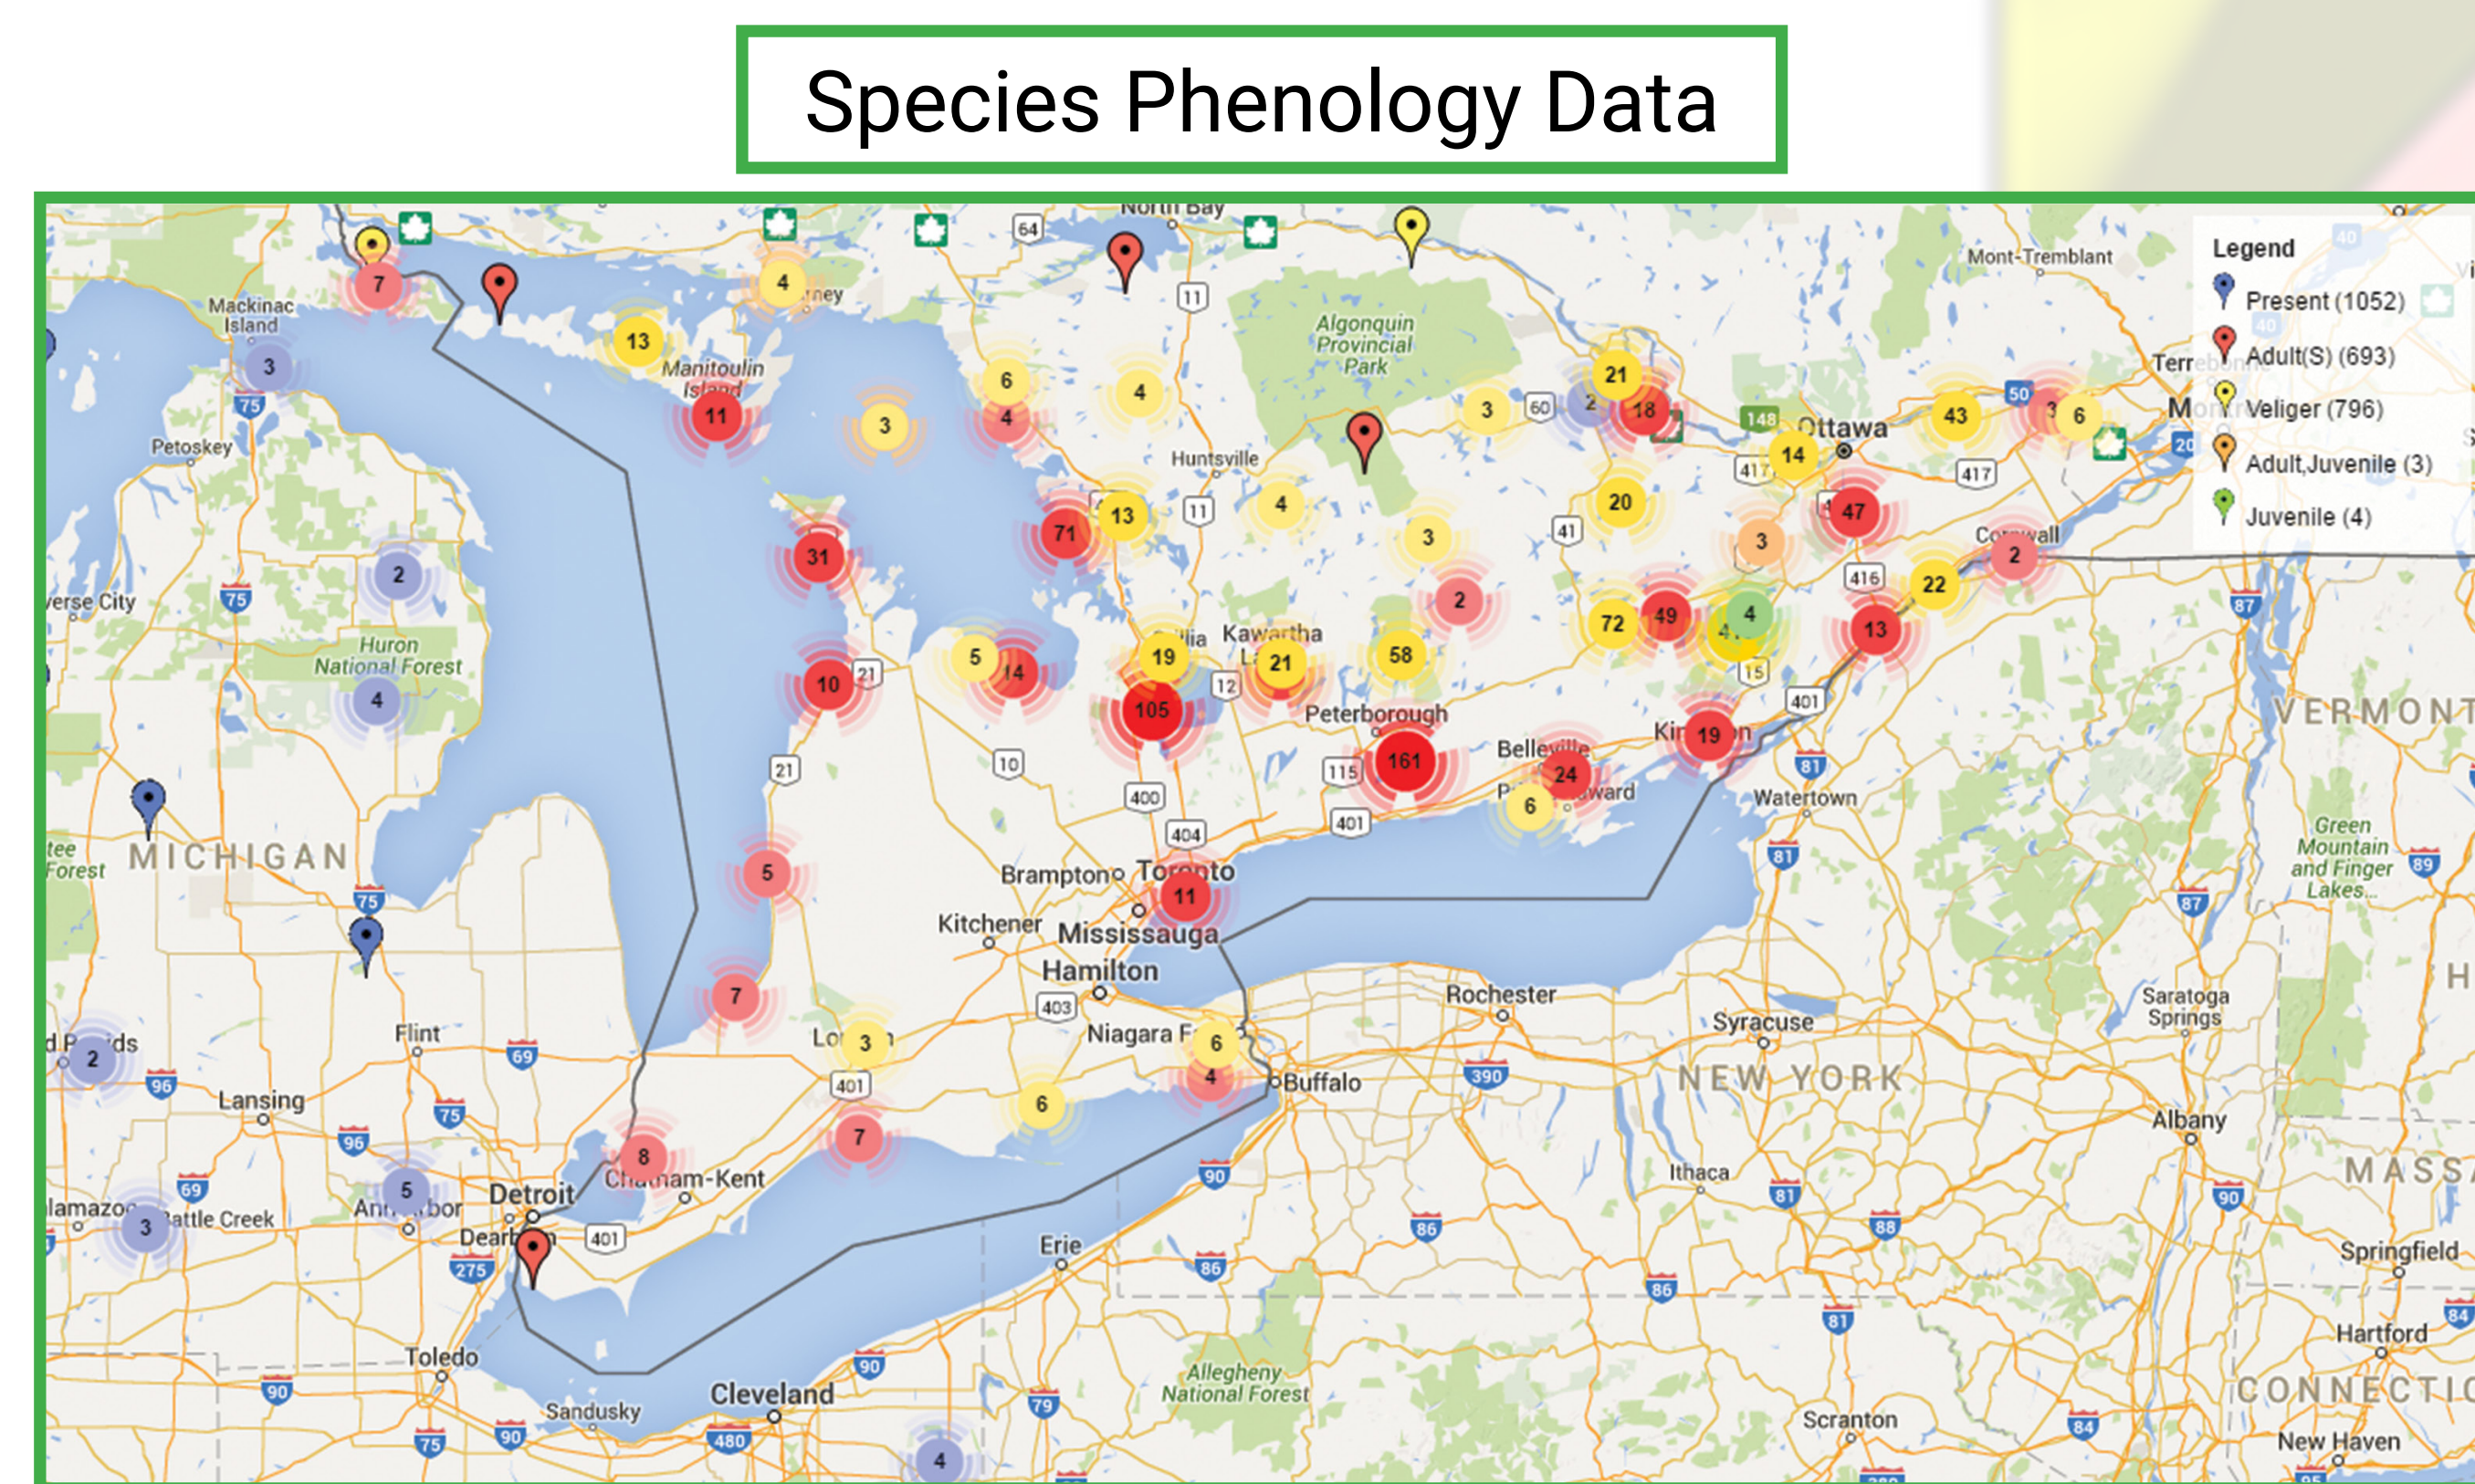

Bugwood Image Sites Find images for your projects

- ➔ Search 245,650 images on 23,138 subjects from 2,414 photographers in database
- ➔ Show off your images while supporting Extension and Outreach
- ➔ All images freely available for non-commercial use, with citation
- ➔ You retain image ownership and get usage stats

Maps Never spend time updating maps on your website again

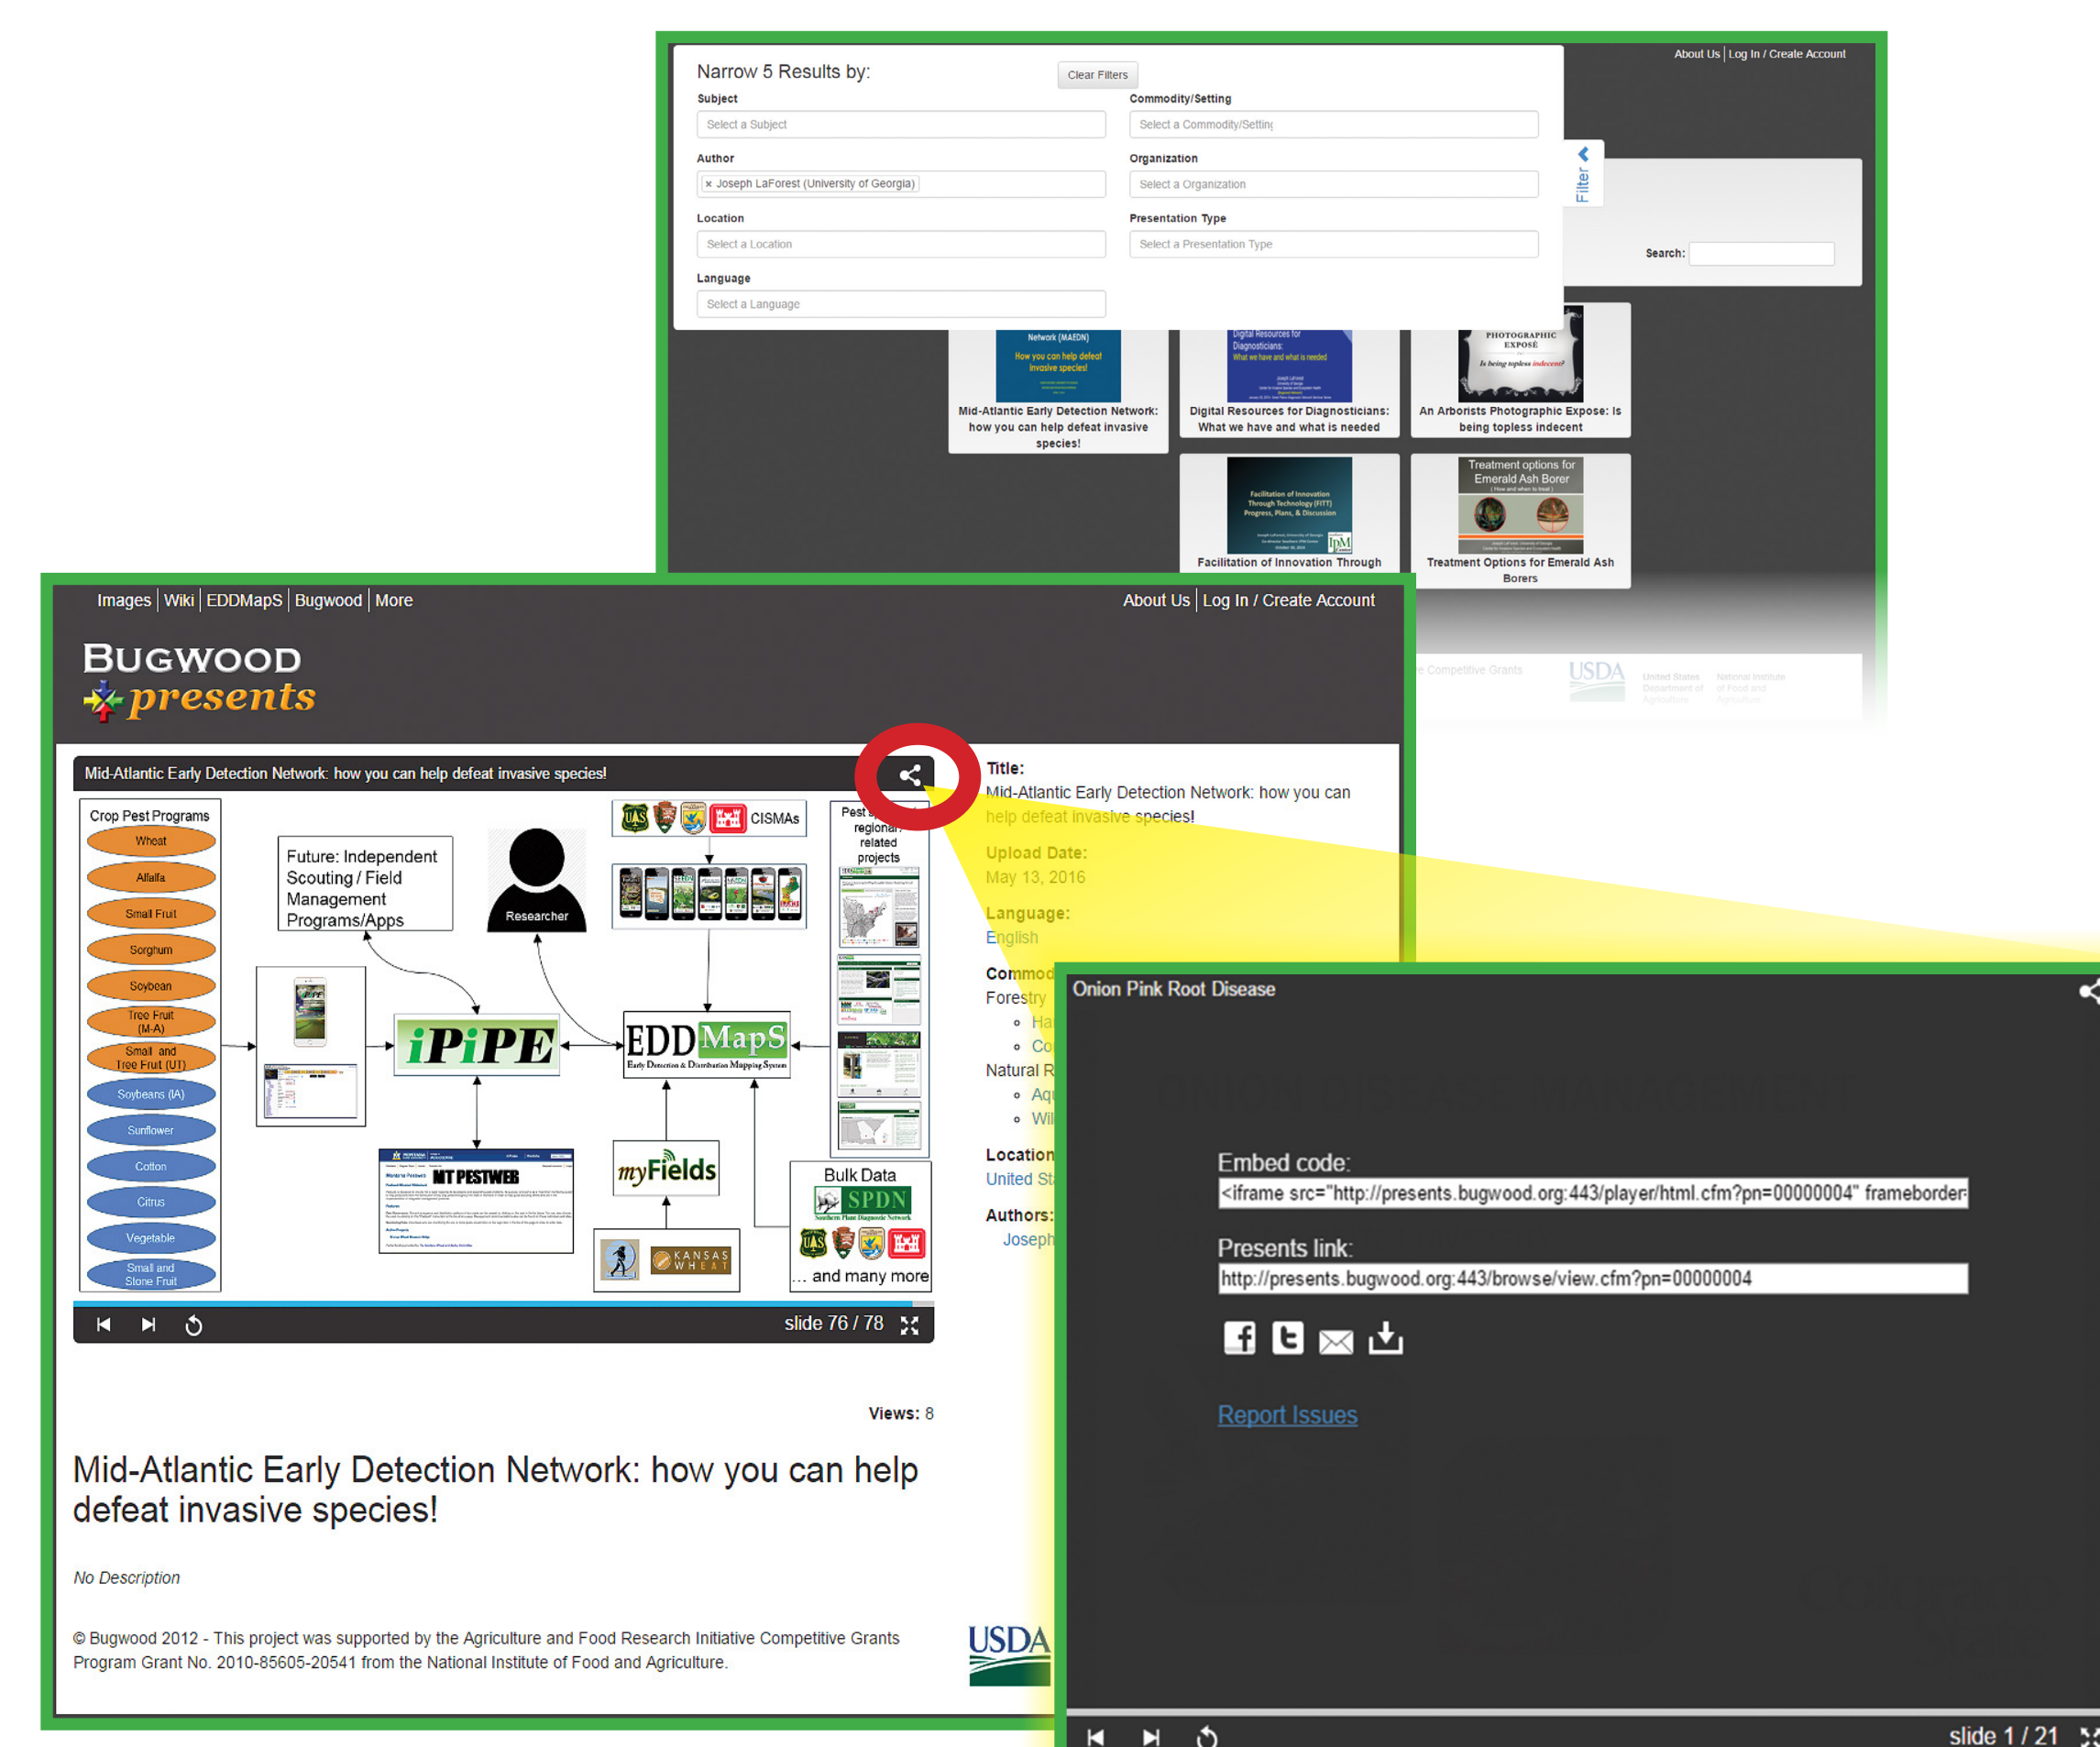

- ➔ Freely available for non-commercial purposes, with citation

If the data supports it, we can map it!

Bugwood Presents Presentation sharing made easy

- ➔ Searchable content
- ➔ Freely available for non-commercial use, with citation
- ➔ Share to multiple websites, update once and done!

Data Sharing Collaboration, not competition

- ➔ Bringing occurrence data to a current standard
- ➔ Easy access via API or download
- ➔ 2.9 million occurrence records available

Japanese Honeysuckle Occurrence Data for the state of Georgia

